Revision and adaptation of the show Variacions Al-leluia by the company from Barcelona Lanònima Imperial. Twelve years after the show's premiere, Fernando Hurtado has decided to pay tribute to the company that has always been his benchmark and in which he began his career, by reinterpreting this innovative, tender yet troubling piece in which characters in an oneiric landscape are enticed to explore scary children's games.

The dancer and choreographer Fernando Hurtado, who is from Malaga, founded his company in Gijon in 2000. Since then, it has premiered more than thirty contemporary dance and dance-theatre shows both in Spain and abroad. Since 2006, it is the Nerja Town Hall resident company.
