From Manuel Alejandro to Manuel Lombo. From a maestro of several generations to a generation that inherits and opens doors. An artist who pays tribute to the maestro with his voice, acknowledging, honouring and accepting has his own the heritage handed down: gratitude that turns into pure art.

De Manuel a Manuel is a review of the soundtrack of an entire generation; a journey of emotions through music and the personal and unmistakable interpretation of a melodic legacy that remains intact to this day.

In this new show, Manuel Lombo pays tribute to Manuel Alejandro, born in Jerez and one of the greatest Spanish language composers, to his colossal hits and to the singers who made them popular.

With elegant staging and a varied range of styles and sounds, this vision of the work of one of the most important composers in Spain will be a source of delight for all those who feel popular music in all its greatness.

Manuel Lombo is a singer, songwriter, composer and performer of music that is full of flamenco connotations, with beautiful and realistic nuances and poetry, who moves brilliantly through all kinds of styles. He has the heterodoxy of a young classic, the respect of an avant-garde flamenco singer, and the volcanic strength of someone who loves his land.

The pianist, performer and composer from Jerez Chico Pérez is one of the musicians of the present-day flamenco scene with the greatest impact. Winner of the Award for Best Artist from the RTVE Institute, Young Talent Award and 2018 Composer Award, amongst others, his debut album Gruserías was one of the best flamenco records in
