Morgan is back on the road with Hotel Tour 2025 to present Hotel Morgan, their fourth studio album. As they themselves explain, it is about the “the next stop of the trip. An album with which to visit us for a while; we wanted to create a temporal location for these new songs, a place where each one has its own place, tells its own story and is free in its own space, but close to the others”. Another place of the many others (hopefully) that form part of this journey that currently represents the band. It is the hotel from which they will come out to sing. The place where they will live, stay up all night, rest and dream of the next one. “We hope you’ll feel at ease in some of these rooms and that you’ll enjoy the stay. Welcome.”

Morgan was created in Madrid in 2012 and has become, with its rock spattered with folk, soul and funk, one of the best-loved bands of the public and critics. Its achievements include five Independent Music Awards, a symphonic concert at the Teatro Real (2020) and its first concert at the WiZink Center in Madrid (2023) which led to the live recording of its album Live at WiZink Center together with the Golden Family.

Hotel Morgan is released on digital platforms on January 31, 2025 and performed live on the Hotel Tour 2025 tour.
