On this journey we are accompanied by three things: a pumpkin, a moustache and a suitcase. One life, one path; and like all courses, one destination: to make children smile.

Don Miguel was born in 1923. His early years feed on his imagination, which will become his most powerful tool. His first toy is a little pumpkin he uses as a rattle. He does not know that this will be his first puppet. Starting in his childhood, with Tina Madrina we will travel through amusing parts of his life up to the creation of Peneque the Brave, his iconic protagonist.

A Pioneer of modern puppet theatre, Miguel Pino (1923-2023) took his cardboard and felt characters from town squares to major theatres. Generation after generation, children have shouted "Peneque, Peneque, where are you?" His magic is now brought to us by his sons Miguel and Antonio Pino, the heirs of this art who are celebrating their father and maestro's one hundredth birthday.
