In his work Arte nuevo de hacer comedias, Lope de Vega concluded that "a way will be found in comedy that, upon hearing it, everything can be known". With this premise, La vida es sueño (Ficción sonora) recovers the spirit of those radio-theatre projects, painting verses for the audience by means of music, sounds and live voices. In short, it is an experience that invites you to close your eyes and let your imagination fly through this masterpiece of Calderón de la Barca and of universal dramatic literature.

Jóvenes Clásicos is a company from Malaga that focuses its activity on contemporary theatre based on classical texts, which they adapt and bring closer to today's audiences. This commitment to the theatre of the Golden Age is also implemented through training courses in verse with the Escuela Pública de Formación Cultural de Andalucía [Public School for Andalusian Cultural Training], and the Malaga Classical Theatre Symposium, with the support of the Malaga Provincial Government. The company also publishes audio books in collaboration with the University of California in Los Angeles, and organises, with the Cánovas del Castillo Library, immersive experiences in the form of sound escape rooms.

Despite its short history, Jóvenes Clásicos is the winner of the 7th Edition of Almagro OFF, has won six Ateneo de Teatro de Málaga awards, the Florencio Award (Urugay) for the Best Foreign Show and the Artistic Production Award granted by the Malaga City Hall.
