Since Alonso died, Sancho has not stopped travelling, he as the master and Rufio as the faithful squire. They have travelled a lot, telling their adventures in exchange for a few coins. Now man and animal, both old and tired of following each other, of pulling each other along, ask each other where to go, who is left to hear their stories. They decide to go back home, but everything changes when they realise that they have reached the end of the road.

'A stout heart breaks bad fortune.' Quixote, part two, chapter 35.

TyT Creaciones is an artistic and cultural project that merges theatrical and audiovisual creation. With a critical and contemporary approach, its objective is to connect with the audience through contemporary stories of quality that reflect their personal mark, generate impact and promote social and cultural reflection and commitment. Their theatrical proposals include Augurios (Factoría Echegaray, 2020), Aguirre (2022) and Kilogramers (Factoría Echegaray, 2024). They have also released the short films Todo va bien (2023) and El amoragaor (2024).
