The cinematic universe of the prestigious film director Juan Antonio Bayona, known worldwide for his spectacular productions, takes over the Teatro Cervantes. The concert will be a unique opportunity to immerse in the atmosphere and emotion of the most iconic soundtracks from the director's films.

The music will come to life with the Orquesta Filarmónica de Málaga conducted by the renowned maestro Fernando Velázquez, who is also the composer of the scores for The orphanage, The impossible, and A monster calls. The celebrated composer Michael Giacchino is the composer of the memorable soundtracks for Jurassic world: Fallen kingdom and Society of the snow. The Coro de Cámara de Granada will also participate in the performance of the score for Jurassic World: Fallen kingdom.

In the words of J.A. Bayona, who will be in Malaga this evening, the event "will be a memorable night in which we will relive the impact of my films through the powerful connection between their stories and the music."
